"THE BUSY CORNER"
WASHINGTON, D. C.The Hat and The Feather
The Two Together
But $1.90 95c each

The effect — really — stunning when the feather is put on the Hat in the latest manner, as worn by one of the smart dressers in Paris just recently.

The Hat (untrimmed) is a luscious, fine-finished felt, in all the wanted colors, such as navy, blue, black and brown. The shapes are those most desirable. These are real $2.50 values. Tomorrow for 95c

The feather is a long Ostrich quill or single feather curled at the tip end and supported at the lower part with two smaller curled single feathers—a combination of the curled and uncurled effects. These are in all the wanted colorings, the majority being ombres; among them the much wanted bird of Paradise yellows, old blues, taupe, pink fuschias, old rose, red, salmon, helio, royal blue and all white. Choice of the lot 95c

ARREST OF A SUSPECT

May be Checkflasher Who Operated in Alexandria and Other Virginia Cities

Special Officer Canaday, of the Washington-Southern Railway, who was in Richmond yesterday reports that while in that city a man answering closely to the description of a man who has been obtaining money in Virginia cities on worthless checks was taken in custody. Charges are preferred against this individual in Newport News and Petersburg, and should officers from those places identify the suspect he will be taken to the city where he first played his game.

The man who is charged with uttering the checks has given several names among them those of J. L. Johnson, H. L. Gardner and J. O. Lee. After victimizing people in Newport News and Petersburg, accounts of his exploits having previously been published in the Gazette, the swindler appeared in Alexandria and before he left succeeded in defrauding merchants of this city out of over fifty dollars on bogus checks.

Chief Goods of the police force, sent descriptions of the thief to several cities, and efforts have since been made to capture him.

OPERATION TO BE PERFORMED.
Col. John S. Mosby will be operated upon tomorrow at the Garfield Hospital, Washington. The operation will be performed by Dr. Hagner, a specialist in inflammatory diseases. It is not expected to be a dangerous operation.

WAS A CONFEDERATE VETERAN.
In the announcement yesterday of the death of John A. Travers the Gazette did not mention the fact that the deceased was a Confederate Veteran. Mr. Travers left this city in 1861 as a member of the Old Dominion Rifles. Later he was transferred to the Confederate navy and performed duties on several ironclads until the close of the war.

DIED.
JOHN A. TRAVERS, son of the late Captain Thomas and Henrietta A. Travers, died November 14, 1912, at 1 P. M., in the 82nd year of his age. Funeral from his late residence, 508 South Henry street, at 3 P. M., Saturday, November 16th, 1912. Relatives and friends of the family invited.

REPAIRING FOUNTAIN.
The drinking fountain erected at the corner of Royal and Cameron streets by the Daughters of the American Revolution, and donated to the city, is undergoing repairs. Work was started today, and it is expected several new pipes to supply water from the main source to fill the large basin will have to be installed after which it is certain to be in good shape for use during the winter.

NEW YORK BAKER.
Daniel F. Harkins has been fortunate in securing the services of H. E. Kermann, a baker, from New York city, to bake the fine cakes and all kinds of pastry which he is selling at his new bakery and serving in his lunch room.

BAZAAR GREAT SUCCESS

Fairy Scenes at Armory Hall—Profuse Decorations and Inviting Booths

The bazaar now being conducted at Armory Hall by Alma Aerie, No. 871, Fraternal Order of Eagles, is rather exceeding the expectations of the projectors. The impetus which was apparent on the opening night (Monday) shows no signs of weakening and the old hall, scene of many bazaars and fairs in past years, has never appeared to better advantage. The bazaar will be continued next week, as it is manifest the members and many friends of the order would not get their quantum sufficient in six days.

The object of the affair appeals to all. The order had long indulged dreams of acquiring a home, and recently purchased the property now used by C. Fleischmann, as a hotel. In the future the Eagles will convert the hotel into a building for their use. The proceeds of the bazaar will be devoted to that end.

Armory Hall is now enchanting. The ceiling and walls are attired in banks of flags and bunting and booths located in many places are arranged in a manner rendering it impossible for patrons to pass without halting and making close inspections. Wives, brothers and daughters of Eagles preside over these dazzling places, and they leave nothing undone which could in any way add to the many attendants.

The centre booth, which attracts considerable attention, is occupied by a handsome automobile, which will be awarded the person holding the lucky number at the close of the bazaar.

Features of the entertainments at the bazaar are the nightly dances which are free to all participants. No charge is made for the admission of ladies.

The Eagles are affording genuine enjoyment to all who may desire to spend an evening with them.

WASHINGTON, D. C.CUT GLASS

Our Cut Glass is of individual production, each piece a distinctive design, a completed and perfect type of artistic excellence. The cutting is done on selected blanks, and every piece possesses clearness and brilliancy impossible in any but first quality.

We do not confine our selections to a limited number of makes; neither do the mediocre sorts find representation here. But we do secure the best from several makers whose supremacy is well established. In this way our displays are more varied than ordinarily. The designs are especially noteworthy. The uniform beauty as well as diversity and the perfection of each design, speak eloquently of the skill of the cutters. Many of the designs are exclusive with us.

Included in the Display are:

Water Tumblers,
Goblets
Water Pitchers,
Wine Glasses,
Celery Trays,
Bonbon Dishes.

Sandwich Plates,
Cheese Plates,
Punch Bowls,
